DISCLAIMERS AND DISCLOSURES

i. No standardization in the disclosures observed
ii. Past history of the company should be disclosed in the report to substantiate the professional judgement, especially when the Company is listed and/or Multinational Company.
iii. In case the company is a wholly Owned Subsidiary (WOS), Valuation Report should mention the layers of shareholding to substantiate the beneficial owner and at least minimum of one layer should be mandatorily mentioned as per Valuation Rules.
iv. There should be a para of identity of valuer and other experts (if any) involved or assisted by.
v. Definition of "Fair Value" and "Liquidation Value" should be provided in the Report.
vi. Since the corporate debtor is under CIRP, the report should consider Liquidation Value on ‘going concern’ Basis.
vii. Disclosure/disclaimer should not mention "Validity of Report is 3 years from the date of Report", as this provision is the requirement to maintain records for 3 years and not validity of Report or validity of valuation.
viii. The valuer shall not disclaim liability for his/its expertise or deny his/its duty of care, except to the extent that the assumptions are based on statements of fact provided by the company or its auditors or consultants or information available in public domain and not generated by the valuer.
ix. A statement explicitly restricting the end use of the report to intended user and for intended purpose only was missing in many valuation reports.
x. No statement or disclosure on conflict of interest is specifically mentioned.
VALUATION STANDARDS

i. Most valuation reports lacked an explicit declaration regarding compliance with the Valuation Standards.

ii. In many valuation reports, valuation standards were not indicated.

iii. In some tangible asset valuation reports, references were drawn to ICAI valuation standards and definitions used from that standard.

iv. Scope of work was not provided in detail in engagement letter or in the Valuation Report.

v. In a few cases, basis of valuation was not as per valuation standards.
